Centre for Civilizations, Cultures and Cities Toronto, Ontario

This new University of Toronto landmark brings together academic and public spaces to create a hub for urban and cultural engagement. The CCC will honor the University's history and heritage, carefully incorporating the 118-year-old Falconer Hall, part of the Faculty of Law, into its design.

SERVICES

Program verification, theatre planning, auditorium design, and theatre equipment design and specification, i.e. performance lighting, rigging, performance and acoustical drapery, and seating systems

One of the most impressive spaces within the building is a 250-seat music recital hall, which is expressed as a 3-story rectangular volume hovering in the air and framed by a large window offering a spectacular view of the Toronto skyline.
